

Who at my institution can move existing AWS accounts or create new AWS accounts in our organization's management account with Four Points?

Depending on your governance policies, either Four Points or authorized users within your institution can create new account(s) or move existing account(s). If Four Points is responsible for creating your organization's account(s) we accept direction from authorized users within your institution.